

Tarzan And The Leopard Men (Ballantine 21912, #18)

After a violent tropical storm, Orando of the Utengi comes under a fallen tree - a giant who does not know his name or who he is. So naturally Orando decides the creature is a god who will protect him from the steel-taloned Leopard Men. Little does Orando know that the bronze god is really Tarzan, reduced by loss of memory to a simple jungle beast.
