

The Golden Rules: Plays for young people, exploring Gods Covenant with His people, and the Ten Commandments

Penny Percy says: I started life in India, my father was in the Indian Army. More recently home is a village near Bristol. I am a widow with two grown-up children. I trained as a nurse, but the arrival of Early Onset Parkinsons Disease has given me more time to indulge my hobbies, chiefly cooking, gardening and writing. I am an enthusiastic supporter of local Amateur Dramatics and I have been involved with the setting up of a Junior Drama Group. I have also encouraged young people to take their acting skills to church to be part of the regular worship, which in a roundabout way is the reason for writing this book.
